

JANICE E. REHA, M.A.

CAREER DISCOVERY

1981 to Present

- Psychovocational evaluation for forensic purpose, including expert witness, fact witness and consultation in the area of marriage dissolution and wrongful discharge.
- Evaluations: 750+
- Court Appearances: 50+ hours in King, Pierce, Snohomish and Kitsap Counties
- Depositions: 50+ hours

CAREER CONSULTANT

1987 to 2003

Port of Seattle, Seattle, WA

Microsoft Corporation, Redmond, WA

BOEING Commercial Airplane Group, Seattle, WA

- Developed and facilitated Career Development classes.

CAREER INSTRUCTOR/COUNSELOR

1974 to 1991

Bellevue Community College

Career Exploration and Planning

71 Classes - 2,245 hours

Displaced Homemakers' Program

4 Classes - 192 hours

PUBLICATIONS

- Companies Must Plan for an Aging Work Force, Puget Sound Business Journal, February 9-15, 2001, pp. 34.
- The Impact of Longevity on Divorce Settlements, Washington State Bar News, May 2001, pp. 21-27.
- "The Work Group", Washington Journal, August 23, 1999, p. 7.
- "Challenging the American Dream", Washington State Bar News, Volume 53, January 1999, pp. 22-28.
- "Wise Educational and Career Choices: The Parents' Role", Mercer Island Reporter, November, 1997.
- "Looking at Schools, Jobs in a New Way", The Seattle Times, January 9, 1997.
- The Use of Vocational Counselors in Marital Dissolution Cases (with Financial Counseling Corollary), Chapter 23, Washington Family Law Desk Book, 1996
- "Working into the 21st Century", Journal American, May, 1995.
- "Interrupting a Career has Financial Implications", Puget Sound Business Journal, November, 1994.
- "Using Qualified Experts as Co-Planners in Divorce Cases", Washington Journal, Vol. 3, No. 44, October, 1994, pp. 14 & 18.
- "Closing in on Disparity", Washington State Bar News, Vol. 48, No. 7, July, 1994, pp. 40-43.
- "From Home to the Workplace", Washington State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education Seminar, 1993
- Washington Journal, Volume I, No. 30, "On the Path to Financial Independence", April, 1993, pp. 11-12.
- 1982 Family Law Section Mid-Year Meeting and Seminars. THE PRACTICAL FAMILY LAWYER. "Evaluation of Mid-Life Career Changers--Homemakers to Income Producer," 10:1-43.
- "Working it Out: Job Skills for the Divorced Woman", Washington State Bar News, Volume 37, No. 3, pp. 15-16.

EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Master of Arts, Seattle University, Seattle, WA 1977

National Certified Counselor (nbcc), No. 8975

Certified Mental Health Counselor, State of Washington, No. 2471

Co-founder: Puget Sound Career Development Association